

Howley Scholars Program:

Creating Pathways Toward Exceptional Futures

For 20 years, The Howley Foundation has impacted students from underserved backgrounds. When Lorie and Nick Howley created the Howley Scholars program in 2001, they knew they possessed the power to make a difference. What they couldn't foresee was how many lives they would change, and in how many ways.

CURRENT SCHOLARSHIPS

- We currently have over 700 students in our scholarship program
- Concentration in Philadelphia and Cleveland

TYPES OF SCHOLARSHIPS

- Middle school scholarships
- Four-year high school scholarships
- College scholarships
- Scholarship and program support for non-traditional education and training programs

HIGH MARKS AND HIGH REGARDS FOR OUR SCHOLARS

- Howley Scholars consistently perform at or near the top of their class
- Our scholars have been valedictorians of their class and National Merit Finalists
- Nearly all Howley Scholars attend 4-year universities

HELPING STUDENTS ACHIEVE UPWARD MOBILITY

Multi-year scholarships help overcome barriers of:

- Low socioeconomic standing
- Unequal opportunity
- Limited access to high-quality education

SCHOLARSHIP RIPPLE EFFECT

More than $5 million has been granted to cover the costs of high school education.

OUR PARTNER SCHOOLS

CLEVELAND

Beaumont
Benedictine
Cleveland Central Catholic
Gilmour Academy
Holy Name
Magnificat
Padua Franciscan
Saint Edward
Saint Ignatius
Saint Joseph Academy
Saint Martin de Porres
Trinity
Villa Angela-St. Joseph

PHILADELPHIA

Cristo Rey
LaSalle College High School
Little Flower
Malvern Preparatory
Merion Mercy Academy
Monsignor Bonner & Archbishop Prendergast
Roman Catholic
Saints John Neumann and Maria Goretti
St. Joseph's Preparatory
West Catholic

“The Howley Foundation sponsors scholarships to help all students, regardless of economic means, receive the best education possible.”

— Jaide Talmadge, St. Martin de Porres Howley Scholar and 2021 Harvard Graduate